Popsicle Stick Scarecrow Craft

This popsicle stick scarecrow was so easy to make! Here’s what you’ll need…

Materials

- 12 popsicle sticks
- Orange paint
- Flesh-colored paint
- Raffia
- Googly eyes
- Orange felt
- Fall flower
- Black permanent marker
- Magnets
- Hot glue gun

Instructions

First, you’ll need to trim two of the popsicle sticks. Line up nine of the popsicle sticks to create somewhat of a square.

Attach the two trimmed popsicle sticks across the back using a hot glue gun. If you’ll be having your students paint these, I would draw a diagonal line across the top so that they know where to paint the orange and flesh-colored paint. I did not do this for myself, but I will definitely be doing this for my kiddos.

Paint the remaining popsicle stick orange. This will be used to create the brim of the scarecrow’s hat.

Attach the hat brim, googly eyes, felt nose, fall flower and raffia hair using a hot glue gun.

Draw on a cute scarecrow mouth, and your popsicle stick scarecrow is complete!

We want to see what you made!
Show us what you made by sending a picture and short description to vistonian@vistadellago.net.

Wild rice soup is an easy recipe to make for dinner. This hearty comfort food is filled with bacon, mushrooms, and vegetables. Use a Dutch oven on your stovetop to create the best creamy soup you’ll have this fall.

Ingredients:
- 6 tablespoons unsalted butter (reserve 2 tablespoons for the mushrooms)
- 1 cup yellow onion, chopped
- 1 1/4 cup celery, chopped
- 1 1/4 cup carrot, chopped
- 1 tablespoon fresh thyme leaves
- 1 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 1/2 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
- 1 tablespoon garlic, minced (roughly 3 large cloves)
- 8 ounces mushrooms, rubbed clean and sliced
- 7 slices low sodium bacon, crumbled
- 1/4 cup all-purpose flour
- 1 cup dry wild rice, rinsed - 100% wild rice is the only rice to use.
- 8 cups low sodium chicken stock
- 2 cups water
- 1 cup heavy whipping cream
- 1 teaspoon fresh thyme leaves, for garnish

Instructions:

Melt the butter over medium-high heat in a Dutch oven. Add the mirepoix (onion, celery, and carrot) and the spices and stir until well mixed.

Cook for 7 minutes, stirring occasionally, and then add the garlic and cook until fragrant, roughly another minute. While the mirepoix is cooking, melt two tablespoons of butter over medium-high heat in a medium-sized frying pan. Add the mushrooms, stirring well to coat them in butter, and cook for 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. The mushrooms are done when the liquid is evaporated and they start turning brown.

Once the mirepoix is done, reduce the heat to medium and sprinkle the flour on the vegetables. Use a wooden spoon to mix the flour into the vegetables, and then cook the flour for 3 minutes. This will form the roux to help thicken the soup. Add the wild rice, and keep stirring for a minute to toast it. Slowly pour in the chicken stock, stirring constantly to prevent lumps. Stir in the water, the crumbled bacon, and the mushrooms, then cover and bring to a boil. Turn the heat down to medium low and simmer for 45 minutes to cook the wild rice and improve the flavor.

During the last 15 minutes of cooking, taste it. If desired, add 1/4 to 1/2 teaspoon salt and black pepper and 1 1/2 teaspoons more of fresh thyme leaves. After it’s cooked, take it off the heat, if necessary; skim off any fat that rises to the top. Pour in the heavy cream. Stir until it is well incorporated. Tip: if you are planning on freezing some of this, only add cream to the part that you’ll be eating before freezing it.

Transfer it to individual serving bowls and garnish with a sprinkle of fresh thyme leaves and black pepper.

In the north, the first frost happens, leaves change colors and leaves fall. By this time, most birds have left for the southern hemisphere to protect themselves from cold weather. However, in the southern hemisphere, October’s weather is just like the northern hemisphere’s April weather.
